TOWN OF CENTRAL
SPECIAL CALLED COUNCIL MEETING
MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 6, 1999
CENTRAL TOWN HALL - 105 WERNER STREET

PRESENT: Mayor Stan Thompson; Councilmembers: Edward Reynolds; Keith Martin; Harry Holladay; Bobby Busha. Administrator Herbert Thompson; Clerk Grace Towe; Auditor Mark Payne.

CALL TO ORDER - Mayor Stan Thompson.

INVOCATION - Harry Holladay.

FIRST READING OF ORDINANCE NO. 99-9 TEL to amend the business license ordinance levying a business license tax on Telecommunications. Mayor Thompson summarized the ordinance and called for a motion dispense with the full reading of the ordinance and adopt on first reading. A motion was made by Edward Reynolds and seconded by Keith Martin to adopt. The vote was unanimous.

Administrator Herbert Thompson explained the reason for the Special Called Meeting, stating that the document had to be in Columbia before October 1, 1999.

Mayor Thompson inquired if there was any objection to going into the work session until such time as Auditor Mark Payne arrived. There was no objection and the agenda for the work session proceeded.

Auditor Mark Payne arrived and Mayor Thompson called the Special Called Meeting back into session and recognized Mr. Mark Payne for a presentation on the latest town audit. Mr. Payne presented council with a copy of the audit and went through the activity contained in the audit and answered any question from Council.

No further business, Mayor Thompson called for a motion to adjourn. Motion by Edward Reynolds, seconded by Keith Martin to adjourn. The vote was unanimous.

Respectfully submitted,

Grace S. Towe
